

GLOBAL CONVENTION 2011

Incorporating

11th International Conference on Corporate Governance

&

2nd Global Conference on Sustainability

12 -14 October, 2011, Radisson Edwardian Bloomsbury Street Hotel, London WC1B 3QD, UK

Theme: Corporate Governance and Sustainability Challenges

Speaker Profile

Lt Gen J S Ahluwalia, PVSM (retd)

Lt Gen J S Ahluwalia, PVSM (retd) is the President of the 'Institute of Directors' and of the 'World Environment Foundation' (WEF). A Post Graduate in Electronics Engineering and MBA. He was the Chairman of the Institution of Engineers (India) and President of Delhi Management Association. He retired from the army in Dec 1994, as the Chief Executive and Director General of the 'Corps of Electronics and Mechanical Engineers' Indian Army. He has authored and edited over 20 books covering 'Total Quality Management', 'Environment Management', 'Corporate Governance', 'CSR' and 'Sustainability'.

Lord Tariq Ahmad of Wimbledon

The Lord Ahmad of Wimbledon was Vice Chairman of the Conservative Party (2008-2010) having joined it in 1994 and currently serves as Marketing and Strategy Director at a leading commodity and financial futures and options firm, Sudden Financial. A business graduate, he joined NatWest in 1991, in corporate banking and strategy roles, before joining the US funds and investment house, Alliance Bernstein. He is elected councilor in Wimbledon since 2002. He has also held Cabinet level position in the London Borough of Merton and Deputy Chairman of the London Councils influential Transport and Environment Committee.

Sanjay Anand

Sanjay Anand, CSOX-P, CGRC-P, Chairperson of SOX Institute and GRC Institute, USA. He is an internationally recognized and renowned expert on Governance, Risk Management, and Compliance and Controls. He is the author of half-a-dozen books on Sarbanes-Oxley, Corporate Governance, Dodd-Frank and more, and frequently speaks on these and related topics at conferences around the globe.

Sunil Bahri

Sunil Bahri is a FCA, FCS, ACSI, Sox Certified and Certified for Corporate Directorship. An advisor and trainer on Forensic Accounting & Corporate Fraud prevention, Six Sigma, Business Process Review & Management, ERP Solutions (Epicor & SAP), Strategic Management, CSR, Environment Management & Recycling & Franchising and. Sunil is CEO of Kaizensox Consulting FZE, based in Dubai and Vancouver, Canada. He is also a Board Member of Dubai Quality Group and also a Dubai Quality Awards Assessor.

Vindi Banga

Vindi Banga joined CD&R's London office in 2010, after a 33-year career at Unilever. He is the former President, Foods, Home and Personal Care and member of the Unilever plc Executive Board. He led the creation of a One Unilever Global Foods, Home & Personal Care Global Category Organization, responsible for innovation and marketing mix development across 170 countries for all 270 Unilever brands, and he was responsible for Unilever's sustainability agenda. Previously, he served as Chairman and Managing Director of Hindustan Unilever Ltd. He has been on the Prime Minister of India's Council of Trade & Industry since 2004. He is a Director of Diversey, Inc. and a Non-Executive Director on the Board of Thomson Reuters Marks and Spencer Group plc. Mr. Banga holds a B.Tech. in Mech and M.B.A.

Gillian Beasley

Gillian Beasley became Director of Law and Administration for Peterborough City Council in 1997. In 2000, she became Director of Environmental and Legal Services. Gillian has been Chief Executive of Peterborough City Council for nine years. The Council has a strong ambition to grow the size of the city and Gillian is leading on a number of multi-million pound regeneration and development schemes to deliver this ambition. Gillian is currently Chair of a National Charity, UNITAS. Gillian received an OBE in 2009 for services to local government. She also received an Honorary Doctorate of Business Administration in 2009 for her services to local government. She is also a Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts.

Sudhir Bhalla

Sudhir Bhalla is Director (Human Resources) on the Board of Indian Oil Corporation Ltd., India's No.1 Fortune 'Global 500' company. In addition, Mr. Bhalla is also Director-in-charge of IBP Division of the Corporation. Mr. Bhalla, with degree in Law and a Masters in Social Work, has over three decades of rich and varied experience in the oil sector, holding key positions in Human Resources functions. Mr. Bhalla's 'People's First, Business Follows' approach of mentoring people for leadership positions, is transforming the Corporation into the energy of India with global foot prints.

Lord Karan Bilimoria, CBE

Karan Bilimoria (Lord Bilimoria of Chelsea) is the founder of Cobra Beer and a Chartered Accountant. Cobra Beer has been awarded a total of 85 Gold Medals between 2003-2011 at the Monde Selection, Brussels, World Selection of Quality Awards – more than any other beer in the world. He was a member of the Government's National Employment Panel (NEP), and from 2001 to 2005 was Chairman of the NEP's SME Board. He was the founding Chairman of the UK-India Business Council (UKIBC) of which he is now President. In June 2006, Karan was appointed The Lord Bilimoria, of Chelsea.

John Bridge

John Bridge OBE is Chairman, Opportunity Peterborough and Chief Executive, Cambridgeshire Chambers of Commerce. John also continues to be a director of Cambridgeshire Horizons Ltd, the Greater Cambridge Partnership, East of England Chambers of Commerce, is Vice-Chairman of the East of England Business Group and a member of EERA Regional Planning Panel. In November 2008, he was appointed as Chairman of Opportunity Peterborough, the city's economic development company. John is a Chartered Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development (FCIPD), a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Logistics and Transport

(FCILT).

Marco Cereste

Marco is the Chair of Cereste holdings, UK. He has a number of non executive directorships which include the Chair of Green Energy Parks Limited and Opportunity Peterborough. He is the Leader of Peterborough Unitary Authority and is Chairman of the Eastern Region Strategic Leaders Group. Marco was the UK Chairman of the NHS Trust Federation. In recognition of his work with the Italian immigrant communities throughout Europe, he was awarded one of Italy's highest honours, L' Ordine della Stella della Soledarieta Italiana, First Class. ("Grand Ufficiale")

Dr. Kailas Chatpatwala

Dr. Kailas Chatpatwala has 22 years rich & varied experience in the industry years in the field of Human Resources, Organizational Development, Change Management, Business and Executive Coaching, Psychometric Analysis. He is Gold Medallist in Accounts and Statistics with Masters in Personnel Management and PhD degree Organizational behaviour. He is Masters in Coaching and Mentoring from Oxford Brookes University, Oxford, UK. He has successfully implemented Competency based HR Management in various organizations in past such as J K Tyre, Reliance Industries, JSW ISPAT Steel Ltd as President Corporate HR.

Sunil Chopra

Currently, Vice President and Global Head of Sales, Banking and Financial Services based in London. Sunil Chopra joined Tata Consultancy Services (TCS) in 2002 responsible for relationship management of top global Banking & Financial Service clients. Prior to TCS, Sunil was with Standard Chartered Bank and ANZ Grindlays Bank for 20 years. Besides Corporate Banking, he held senior roles in the Investment Banking Division and Corporate Finance advisory services leading cross-functional teams. His career began with Hindustan Lever, a subsidiary of Unilever, as a Chartered Accountant.

Prof Colin Coulson-Thomas

Dr/Prof Colin Coulson-Thomas, an active consultant and member of the business school team at the University of Greenwich, has re-engineered end-to-end healthcare processes, and been the process vision holder of large and complex transformation projects in highly regulated environments. He was the world's first Professor of Corporate transformation, and served for ten years on the Board of Moorfields Eye Hospital. A fellow of seven chartered bodies, Colin is a hospital Governor and author of over 40 books and reports. He has helped over 100 organizations to improve director, board and corporate performance.

Pippa Croney

Prior to Board Intelligence, Pippa worked at HM Treasury, held a strategy position at Russell Investments and was a Director of a London hedge fund. Pippa is a member of the UK Society of Investment Professionals, the European Corporate Governance Institute and received a prestigious award from Management Today for "her role in reforming UK board practices".

Andrew Dakers

His career has spanned IT at the BBC, Business Change Management at GlaxoSmithKline and campaigning for WWF-UK. Andrew has been a parliamentary candidate and, as a local councilor since 2006, Spends his evenings chairing the project to regenerate the historic heart of Brentford Town Centre and as a trustee of both a social landlord and a pension fund. He gained an MSc Development Management from The Open University in 2002.

Neil Darwin

Neil is Director of Economic Development, Opportunity Peterborough, he has worked for a range of authorities within their Economic Development functions, including Milton Keynes, Bedford and Ashfield. Prior to these roles Neil worked for Peterborough City Council as the Council's Economic Regeneration Manager with responsibility for the area's sub regional economic partnership and programme delivery. Neil is an Economics and Politics graduate.

Ian Davies

Ian Davis is the Present Chairman of The Independent Directors Ltd., UK. He is a Chartered Accountant and experienced Director and Audit Committee Chairman of public sector bodies, public and private companies. A member of the Technical Advisory Committee of the Institute of Chartered Accountants, Ian is also a Visiting Fellow of the Department of Strategy at the Cranfield School of Management. He has been a Director of Chara Ltd since 1994. He is a non-executive director of Dawson Holdings plc and Salisbury NHS Foundation Trust.

Jenni Davies

Jenni Davies is Delivery Programme Director at the London Sustainability Exchange (LSx). Prior to this, Jenni spent five years managing sustainability programmes at Heathrow Airport: leading development of BAA's carbon footprinting approach, and initiating strategies to improve the sustainability of Heathrow's operations. Her achievements include gaining Carbon Trust Certification and Airport Carbon Accreditation for the airport's carbon management approach, and the Royal Society of Wildlife Trust's Biodiversity Benchmark for land management.

Dag Detter

Dag born in Sweden, holds a degree in Business and Sinology from Sweden and has studied classical Chinese history in China. Dag Detter is one of the key initiators of the OECD Guidelines on Corporate Governance of State- Owned Enterprises. Dag has served as Non-Executive Director on a number of boards of private and public companies including Telia the Swedish telecom company, Celsius, the European defense contractor and DTZ, the international real estate advisor. He has also been an advisor to the World Bank, IFC and the OECD.

Dr. Stephen A. Drew

Dr. Stephen Drew is Director of EMBA and Executive Programs and Professor of Strategy at Florida Gulf Coast University. Previously he worked in international management consulting, finance and strategic planning functions for major multinational corporations His consulting interests focus on strategic-decision making, boards of directors, and leadership of change management.

Global Convention 2011
12 – 14 October 2011, London, United Kingdom

Dr. Indurlall Fagoonee

Accomplished Scholar from Paris and USA and Executive with domestic and international experience at strategic level, Dr. Fagoonee has been the former Vice-Chancellor of the University of Mauritius. He is Chairman of COMESA Regional Investment Agency. Currently co-founder and CEO of International Sustainable Performance Institute committed to regional consultancy, capacity building and advisory services. UN- CLCS Commissioner since 2002.

Jessica Fries

Jessica Abridged is Director of the Prince's Accounting for Sustainability Project (A4S) and the International Integrated Reporting Committee (IIRC). She is co-editor of a book comprising case studies on 'connected reporting' and 'connected thinking' by leading academics published in June 2010, "Accounting for Sustainability: Practical Insights". Jessica is a member of the UK Treasury's Sustainability Reporting Steering Committee and of the Chartered Institute of Public Finance and Accountancy's Sustainability Committee.

Ignacio Gavilan

Ignacio Gavilan has a wealth of international sustainability supply chain experience. He recently completed a UN(FAO) project on the sustainability risks to global crop production with a focus on bioenergy. He also helped develop and maintain the Global Sustainability Strategy for BP Biofuels with an emphasis on management systems and standards development across their supply chain. Ignacio also established and managed McDonald's global Corporate Social Responsibility program for 5,000 international suppliers and foreign local providers for food, beverage and equipment.

Seamus Gillen

Seamus is Policy Director at the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators. He was the author of the Financial Reporting Council's guidance on board effectiveness, part of the UK Corporate Governance Code. He is also responsible for ICSA's work on boardroom behaviors, the ICSA Hermes Transparency in Governance Awards and for a range of initiatives relating to the NHS and not-for-profit sectors.

Christopher Gleadle

Being curious, creative and independently minded, Christopher has used these gifts to engender sustainability into organizational processes spanning his extensive commercial career. As founder of the CMG Consultancy, delivers sustainability analysis, advice and mentoring. Christopher's articles are published globally, and he is author of Sustainable Growth Through Sustainable Business.

Lord Khalid Hameed, CBE DL

Lord Khalid Hameed, CBE DL is Chairman of Alpha Hospital Group, as well as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the London International Hospital. Lord Hameed chairs the Commonwealth Youth Exchange Council. In 2005 he was awarded the Sternberg Award for his contribution to further Christian - Muslim - Jewish Relations. He was appointed by Her Majesty the Queen as the first Asian High Sheriff of Greater London for the year 2006-2007. He was made a life peer in February 2007 and sits as a crossbencher. He was also named British Asian of the year 2007. He has been awarded the Freedom of the City of London.

Global Convention 2011
12 – 14 October 2011, London, United Kingdom

Rt. Hon Baroness Hanham, CBE

Joan Brownlow Hanham, CBE is a Conservative member of the House of Lords. She has been a Parliamentary Under Secretary of State at the Department for Communities and Local Government since 2010 and was leader of the Kensington and Chelsea London Borough Council from 1989. She was made a Life peer as Baroness Hanham, of Kensington in the Royal Borough of Kensington and Chelsea in 1999. Hanham is also Chairman of St. Mary's Hospital NHS Trust and Westminster Primary Care Trust.

Ursula Hartenberger

Ursula comes from Germany and is now operating from Brussels. She joined RICS in 2006 as Head of Public Affairs Europe. In August 2009, Ursula took over the role of Global Head of Sustainability. She is responsible for the development and implementation of a global sustainability strategy for RICS and for facilitating a global exchange of information with regard to sustainability policy and best professional practice. She is the editor of Global Balance, the RICS sustainability newsletter. She regularly writes on energy efficiency policies and sustainability in the property sector.

Derek Harris

Derek is a Chartered Engineer and a Fellow of the Institution of Engineering and Technology. Derek moved to the Peterborough area in 1979 and was Managing Director of Sodastream Ltd. Derek was founder Chairman of Linx Printing Technologies Ltd based in St Ives, a leading continuous ink jet printing company and Coffee Nation Ltd, Since June 2010 Derek has been Chairman of the local NHS, which is responsible for commissioning (buying) all the healthcare for the local population of 175,000 people.

Prof Lars G Hassel

Prof Lars G Hassel is the Öhrling's PricewaterhouseCoopers professor of accounting and auditing at Umeå School of Business in Sweden. He holds a Dr.Sc. degree in accounting from Åbo Akademi University in Finland where he is a professor of accounting. Prof Hassel is since 2006 the Director of Sustainable Investments research program funded by Mistra, the foundation for strategic environmental research in Sweden. Lars is a member of the steering committee of UN PRI Academic network and the chair of the 2011 academic conference.

Ulric Fayl Von Hentaller

Ulric Fayl is Director, The Global Round Table. Initiator of various Europe-wide networks. Previously European Commission; Adviser to European Academy President; Manager at "Big Six"; General Manager of commodities trading; Adviser to European high-tech and start-up companies. Experienced adviser on European affairs, projects and EU funding.

Raymond P. Hill

Raymond P. Hill has been with Fitch Ratings in London since 1998, where he focuses on emerging market corporate credit. Raymond brings to Fitch over 30 years of experience in the financial services sector. After spending the first 11 years of his career focusing on the UK markets with both Barclays and Hill Samuel, he then spent the next 11 years working in Corporate Banking at Bayerische Landesbank. Raymond is an associate member of the Chartered Institute of Bankers.

Rt Hon Mark Hoban

Mark Hoban is Member of Parliament (UK) 2001. Mark was appointed the Financial Secretary to the Treasury in May 2010. Mark was a member of the Select Committee on Science and Technology between 2001 and 2003. His involvement in politics started in 1980, when he joined the Conservative Party in the North East of England. He first stood for parliament in 1997 in South Shields. Born and brought up in the North East of England, He graduated in economics from the London School of Economics and is a Chartered Accountant. He worked for PricewaterhouseCoopers and its predecessor firms between 1985 and 2001.

Cyrill Jegu

Cyrill Jegu is an international Business Excellence advisor focusing on Sustainability and Governance. As Executive Director of The Next Step Asia, Partner at Genius Methods and the Probe Network, he advises and coaches Board members and Senior Executives on Strategic Sustainability and Governance in Europe and emerging economy markets.

Ritu Jhingon

Ritu Jhingon is General Manager Corporate Communication and CSR at Cairn India. A Masters in Business Administration, she has over two decades of varied experience working as strategist, marketing solutions and stakeholder engagement. Prior to joining Cairn India, she has worked in senior management positions for Hindustan Times Media Ltd., and Ogilvy and Mather where she has led teams towards strategizing solutions, creating platforms for experiential marketing, defining mechanisms and tools for defined project delivery.

Alex Johnson

Alex Johnson is the Senior Sustainability Communications Consultant at Salterbaxter. Alex was also the Communications Director at Clownfish, joining the sustainability communications agency in 2010. Before joining Clownfish in 2010, Alex was at UK sustainable development NGO Forum for the Future. At the Forum he devised and executed a digital media strategy, successfully managing to wean the management off their heavy diet of reports. Alex has been published by a number of national newspapers and writes regularly for Green Futures magazine. Alex has a degree in Human Communication and Drama from Manchester University.

Dr. Aled Jones

He is the inaugural Director of the Global Sustainability Institute at Anglia Ruskin University. Dr Jones was previously Deputy Director at the University of Cambridge Programme for Sustainability Leadership and was Director of the Chevening Economics of Climate Change Programme (for the UK Foreign and Commonwealth Office).

Global Convention 2011
12 – 14 October 2011, London, United Kingdom

Sean Kidney

The Climate Bonds Initiative promotes long-term debt models to fund a rapid, global transition to a low-carbon economy. It recently launched an International Standards and Certification Scheme for climate bonds. Sean is also a member of the UK Government's Capital Markets Climate Initiative, a director of the Network for Sustainable Financial Markets. He was previously marketing advisor to a number of the largest Australian pension funds; Europe Manager for Climate Risk Ltd, assessing climate risks and opportunities; and a social marketer and publisher.

Rajesh Kothari

Rajesh Kothari is the founder of AlfAccurate Advisors (AAA) and has 16 years of experience in the Indian capital market. Prior to AAA, he was a director at Voyager Investment Advisors - a US-based, India dedicated fund. Before that, he served as a fund manager at DSP Blackrock Mutual Fund. He received awards and recognition for delivering superior and consistent risk adjusted returns from institutions like CNBC, CRISIL, Mylris, Lipper-Reuters India.

Prof. Poonam Kumar

She has over three decades of worldwide experience as an organizational, business and policy consultant; she has been on the Board of several global companies and is also a key strategic advisor to many others from across the world. Prof. Kumar has worked with global companies seeking to understand and tap the potential of the Indian market through a process of strategically monitored phase-wise business incubation. A double post-graduate with degrees in Cost Accountancy and International Economics, Prof. Kumar is an Alumnus of the Harvard Business School and has also completed various Senior Executive Programmes from INSEAD.

Deepak Lalwani, OBE

Deepak Lalwani is Director of India investments at London stockbroker, Astaire & Partners Limited. He was elected as a Member of the London Stock Exchange over 20 years ago. He is a Fellow of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants and a Fellow of the Chartered Institute for Securities and Investment. He authors since 1995 the widely distributed "India Report", which is a macroeconomic summary of the unfolding India investment story. He has specialized in India investments for over 15 years and covers equities, bonds, listing of companies on UK exchanges, M&A and Venture Capital.

Jeremy Leggett

Jeremy Leggett is founder and Executive Chairman of Solarcentury and founder and Chairman of SolarAid, a charity set up by Solarcentury. He was a member of the UK Government's Renewables Advisory Board from 2002-06. He has worked in the oil industry, among other things researching oil source rocks funded by BP and Shell, and in the environment movement, where he won the US Climate Institute's Award for Advancing Understanding. He has recently been appointed a CNN "Principal Voice," and described by the Observer as "the UK's most respected green energy boss".

Ernst Ligteringen

Ernst Ligteringen is Chief Executive of the Global Reporting Initiative (GRI), an international organization with a mission to make sustainability reporting standard practice, driving its vision of a sustainable global economy. Ligteringen has been Chief Executive of GRI since 2002. Before joining GRI, Ligteringen worked for more than 20 years at various non-governmental and international organizations. His positions included as Executive Director of Oxfam International, Director of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies, and Consultant to the ILO.

John Longworth

John Longworth Director General of the British Chambers of Commerce was originally trained as a scientist. He has served as an Executive Main Board Director of Asda Group Ltd and Asda Financial Services Ltd, and held senior director positions at Tesco Stores Ltd and the CWS Ltd. His public roles have included the board of a Healthcare Trust and the British Retail Consortium. He was economic spokesman for the Confederation of British Industry, Chairman of its Distributive Trades Panel and Chairman of the Brussels based CIES International Product Standards and Trade Body. A former Health and Safety Commissioner and Chairman of the HSE Audit Committee, John also sat on the original Deregulation Task Force.

Prof Michael Mainelli

Michael co-founded Z/Yen (www.zyen.com), the City of London's leading commercial think-tank, in 1994 to promote societal advance through better finance and technology. Michael started as a research scientist in aerospace (rocket science) and computing, becoming a Corporate Development Director of, the UK's Defence Evaluation and Research Agency. Michael is Professor Emeritus of Commerce at Gresham College and Visiting Professor at LSE, Michael was the British Computer Society's Director of the Year 2004/2005 and created both the London Accord and Long Finance initiatives.

Alastair MacGregor

Alastair oversees Trucost's large bespoke projects as well as developing Trucost's partner network. He has 10 years' experience as an investment manager active across a range of sectors including FMCGs, automotive, technology, machinery and basic materials. Prior to joining Trucost in 2011 he was a sustainability consultant. He is a CFA charter holder and holds an MSc in Economics for Natural Resource and Environmental Management from Cranfield University.

Stuart McLachlan

Stuart was first appointed to the Board in 2006 and is responsible for WSP's Environment & Energy business. Having worked both as a practising environmental consultant and a manager of a London based environmental and testing firm, Stuart joined WSP in 1995 to be responsible for the start-up of the Group's Environmental business. He became Managing Director of WSP Environmental UK in 1997 and Managing Director of the Group's global Environment & Energy business in 2001. He sits on the Environmental Leadership Teams of BiTC and the MayDay Network.

Sunil (Sunny) A. Misser

Sunil (Sunny) A. Misser is the Chief Executive Officer of AccountAbility. Previously, Mr. Misser served as Chairman of Account Ability, and led its Advisory Services arm. Prior to joining AccountAbility, Mr. Misser was Global Managing Partner of the Sustainability Advisory Business at PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC). He holds an M.S. in Management from the MIT/Sloan School of Management and M.S. in Industrial Engineering from Lehigh University. Mr. Misser published the book: Corporate Responsibility - Strategy, Management and Value.

Chander Mohan

Chander is a Senior Consultant, International Keynote Speaker, Certified Master Facilitator and an Executive Coach specializing in Strategic Planning, Change, Leadership and Human Resources Management. His professional experience of over 35 years in senior management roles, including 20 years in training and consulting, has proved valuable in training and consulting with senior executives from global and regional organizations such as World Bank/IFC, ABB, Gillette, Emirates, Pfizer, Sabc, Adnoc, BP, ST Microelectronics and many others in USA, Europe, Middle East, Asia and Africa.

Philip Monaghan

Philip Monaghan is an internationally recognized writer and strategist in environmental sustainability and economic development. He is author of the acclaimed books 'How Local Resilience Creates Sustainable Societies' (out February 2012) and 'Sustainability in Austerity' (2010) which have won praise from the UN, Harvard and WWF."

Dr. Tom Mortimer

Tom Mortimer has been involved in legal education for over twenty years. He is currently Principal Lecturer within Anglia Law School covering Corporate Governance; Contract Law; Company Law; Business Law; EU Law; Insolvency Law and Employment Law. Tom's qualifications include: PhD in Legal Education, LLM and LLB (Hons). He is also a Member of: The Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (MCIArb); The College of Teachers (MCoIT); The Higher Education Academy (MHEA); The European Corporate Governance Institute (MECGI) and an Associate of the Chartered Management Institute (ACMI). Tom has published widely in the areas of Business Law in Practice.

Paul Moxey

Paul Moxey is Head of Corporate Governance and Risk Management at ACCA's Head Office in London. He is responsible for ACCA's policies on corporate governance and risk management and is a leading contributor to its responses to global developments in this area. Paul held senior positions in industry as company secretary and as group financial controller. Before joining ACCA, he was a consultant specializing in corporate governance in the UK National Health Service (NHS). As a consultant he also ran a NHS internal audit consortium for ISO 9000 accreditation. He is cochairman of the Control and Risk Self-Assessment Forum, a UK based network of CRSA practitioners.

Martin Neureiter

Born in Salzburg in 1961 and Master of Law from the University of Salzburg. CEO of "The CSR Company", a consultancy specialized in CSR with offices in Vienna, Bucharest, Dubai, Kiev, New Delhi, Riyadh, Seoul and Sofia. He is Task Group Leader within ISO (International Standards Organization) for the writing of the ISO 26 000 standard on Social Responsibility. Developed CSR Awards and Rankings for Austria. He is also President of the Centre for Corporate Citizenship, Romania. Worked in European Parliament and organized European Parliament campaign for Liberal Party. Author of a number of books on CSR.

Charles Perry

Charles Perry is Co-founder of Second Nature with a long track record in sustainability and climate change, working to transform organizations including Tesco, Barclays, Arjo Wiggins, Lafarge, BP, GE, H&M and the UK government. Charles was selected and trained by Al Gore to present "An Inconvenient Truth", appointed a Judge for the Morgan Stanley Great Britons Awards and Adviser to David Cameron's Quality of Life Policy Review on Climate Change. In 2006, he joined New York firm Green Order before setting up his own sustainability advisory business.

Baroness Usha Prashar

Baroness Prashar was appointed inaugural Chairman of the Judicial Appointments Commission from October 2005 – to September 2010. From 2000 to 2005 she was the First Civil Service Commissioner. Born In Kenya, She is a Cross Bench member of the House of Lords.. She was appointed as chairman of the Judicial Appointments Commission in September 2005. She was First Civil Service Commissioner from August 2000 to 2005. Lady Prashar was chairman of the National Literacy Trust from 2001 to 2005. She was appointed CBE in 1994, and was made a Life Peer in 1999 as Baroness Prashar, of Runnymede, in the County of Surrey.

Mohammad Rafiq

Mohammad Rafiq, Senior Vice President of Programs at the Rainforest Alliance, develops, coordinates and oversees the organization's global work in agriculture, forestry and tourism, climate change and evaluation and research. Prior to the Rainforest Alliance Rafiq was employed as the Head of the Business and Biodiversity Program of the International Union for Conservation of Nature (IUCN).

Navin M. Raheja

Mr. Navin M. Raheja is an entrepreneur and visionary par excellence. From a humble beginning, it has been primarily his vision, determination, dedication and untiring efforts that led the company to reach its present heights. He heads NAREDCO & Chairs Real Estate Council of ASSOCHAM and is Executive Member FICCI and CII.

P Panduranga Rao

Panduranga Rao heads LANCO Infratech's gas based power projects as Director and CEO of LANCO Kondapalli Power Pvt. Ltd., Director of ABAN Power Company Ltd. and Udupi Power Corporation Ltd. A commerce graduate, a qualified Chartered Accountant and a certified Company Secretary, he has more than 32 years of rich experience across diverse industries.

R Seetharaman

Group Chief Executive Officer, Doha Bank has nearly three decades of experience in banking, information technology and consultancy. He is a Chartered Accountant and holds certificates in IT Systems and Corporate Management. He has excelled in handling multi-dimensional functions within the banking sector and has been responsible for two successful mergers. Prior to joining Doha Bank in 2002, Mr. Seetharaman held executive management positions in three banks Oman, handling all domains in banking. He started his professional career with, Price Waterhouse before moving to banking sector.

Richard Sermon MBE

Mr. Richard Sermon is Sheriff of the City of London 2010/11. He took office as Sheriff of the City of London on the 28th Sept 2010. Qualified as a Chartered Secretary, he began his career with Crest Hotels. In 1996 he formed his own consultancy practice, Gryphon Corporate Counsel. He has particular expertise in the fields of financial communications, reputation management, corporate governance and the promotion of inward investment and international trade. Mr. Sheriff is currently a non-executive member of the Management Board of the UK Defense Academy and a Visiting Professor in Corporate Governance at Cass Business School. He is Chairman of the Home Improvement Trust and Joint Honorary Secretary of the City and Guilds of London Institute. He is a Governor of the City of London School for Girls, and a Board Member of the London Chamber of Commerce and Industry (LCCI).

Arvind Sharma

Arvind Sharma Masters in Environmental Science and Engineering, from IIT India. He has been primarily responsible in building carbon foot printing and carbon strategy as key service offerings of KPMG to its enormous client base across the world. As a key team member under the European Union's 'Socially Responsible Business' project, he has developed the training material on Social Responsibility and its relevance to SMEs and also imparted training on the subject.

Alok Sharma MP

Alok Sharma is an Indian-born British politician with the Conservative Party in the United Kingdom. He was elected in 2010 as Member of Parliament for Reading West county constituency. Sharma received a BSc in Applied Physics with Electronics in 1988. Sharma is currently a governor of a school in Reading. He is also a Fellow of the Royal Society for the advancement of the Arts, Manufacturing and Commerce. Sharma has worked on a factory production line, as a company auditor, tutored university students, and ran a consulting firm.

Prof J P Sharma

J.P. Sharma is a Professor of Law and Corporate Governance, Delhi School of Economics, India. He has supervised 13 PhDs, 17 M.Phil dissertations. He has authored 10 books and over 80 research papers/articles published in several national and international journals of repute. He has widely travelled and participated in a large number of seminars.

Kamalesh Sharma

Kamalesh Sharma, the High Commissioner of India to Britain, was appointed Secretary General of the Commonwealth on the 1st April 2008. Sharma joined the Indian Foreign Service in 1965. He was Permanent Representative to the UN in Geneva from 1988 to 1990, acting as the UN Council for Trade and Development's Spokesman for Developing Countries in the Uruguay round of trade negotiations. He later took on ambassadorial missions in Germany, Kazakhstan and Kyrgyzstan. From August 1997, he served five years at the UN headquarters in New York, where he worked on the Millennium Development Goals. He was appointed as UN Secretary General Kofi Annan's Special Representative to East Timor from 2002 to 2004.

Richard J. Shipperbottom

A keen advocate of social responsibility, corporate or otherwise, Richard has implemented profit improvement practices and behavioral change across the globe, a journey that has taken him from state of the art factories in Tokyo to coal mines in Bihar, consolidating his belief that the resilience of the poorest amongst us has lessons for us all.

Mohini Daljeet Singh

A social worker and an educationist. She set up Max India Foundation,- the social service arm of the Max India Group of Companies. Under her direction, Max India Foundation has spread its caring wings to touch the lives of 1,69,314 beneficiaries, visiting 295 locations and partnering with 267 NGOs. The focus areas of Max India Foundation provide quality healthcare to the underprivileged especially children and to work for an eco-friendly sustainable.

Dr. Jonathan Smith

Dr. Jonathan Smith is Senior Lecturer at the Lord Ashcroft International Business School. His current research, consulting and development interests are focused on organizational, team, and individual transformation through spiritual leadership; development and training within the police; and sustainable development for businesses. Jon has experience in a variety of managerial and training roles, in a number of public and private sector organizations. Prior to working at the University Jon was a Director of Studies at the UK National Police Training and Development Authority.

Prof Vladimir Smorodin

Prof. Dr. Vladimir Smorodin graduated from Kiev State University, Ukraine (1971); PhD in Physics (1989), Moscow State University / Inst. Phys. Chemistry, Academy of Sciences of the USSR, Moscow, Russia (1989); Weather, Climate and Environment Management Program, Director; Center for Environment, Clarkson University, NY, USA.

Dan Staniaszek

Dan Staniaszek spent over 25 years in environmental sustainability, in the public, private and non-profit sectors. He played a leading role in developing UK energy supplier carbon reduction targets, and was also co-author of the 2003 Energy White Paper. As project director for a consultancy team, he helped develop the flagship Renewables Obligation policy. More recently, as founder and MD of Sustainability Consulting Ltd, he undertook the policy and economic modelling for the Building Performance Institute Europe project “Transforming Europe's Buildings”.

Dr. William Sun

Dr. William Sun is Reader in Management and Leader of Corporate Governance and Sustainability Research Group at Faculty of Business and Law, Leeds Metropolitan University, UK. He is editor of the book series Critical Studies on Corporate Responsibility, Governance and Sustainability (Emerald, since 2010), lead editor of Corporate Governance and the Global Financial Crisis: International Perspectives (Cambridge University Press, 2011).

Charles Taylor

Charles Taylor was a chorister at St. Paul’s Cathedral, London, where he sang at the State Funeral of Sir Winston Churchill and the memorial service for President John F Kennedy. After reading theology at Selwyn College, Cambridge, Charles trained for the ordained ministry at Oxford. He also studied at the Church Divinity School of the Pacific, at Berkley, California. He is the present Dean of Peterborough Cathedral. Charles has been on the Board of Directors of the International Lichfield Arts Festival.

Aziz Tayyebi

Aziz Tayyebi works as Financial Reporting Officer of the Association of chartered certified Accountants (ACCA). Tayyebi is the key technical contributor to ACCA’s thought leadership in the field of Islamic finance, contributing articles and discussion papers on the subject and responding to external consultations in this area. He represents the ACCA in the Federation of European Accountants (FEE) task force on XBRL and on the UKTI accounting subgroup on Islamic finance. Previously, he worked as a manager with Ernst & Young, managing a portfolio of audit clients ranging from large privately owned companies to listed companies.

Dr. Shann Turnbull

Dr. Shann Turnbull obtained a MBA from Harvard and became a serial entrepreneur founding many enterprises with three becoming publicly traded. As Chairman and/or CEO he organized a number re- of companies. In 1975 he co-founded the first director educational qualification in the world. He has advised UK Hermes Focus Funds.

Ola Ullsten

Ola Ullsten is presently Co-Chair of the World Commission on Forests and Sustainable Development. Dr. Ullsten was a member of the Swedish parliament from 1964 to 1982, and served simultaneously as the Minister for International Development Cooperation from 1976-78 and as Minister of Immigration (1977-78), then as Minister of Foreign Affairs (1979-1982). He was elected leader of the Swedish Liberal Party (1978-82) and later the same year became the Prime Minister. Dr. Ullsten is the Chair of the OAC International Advisory Council, a senior fellow at the

Global Convention 2011
12 – 14 October 2011, London, United Kingdom

International Institute for Sustainable Development in Winnipeg and a member of the Board of Directors of the Woods Hole Research Center, Massachusetts, USA.

Baroness Sandeep Verma

Baroness Verma Born in Amritsar in Punjab, India. She moved as a child with her parents to England in 1960 and was created a Conservative life peer as Baroness Verma, of Leicester in the County of Leicestershire in May 2006. She is a British businesswoman, member of the House of Lords and currently Opposition Whip and Opposition Spokesperson for Education and Skills and for Health. In 2006 Lady Verma was made a Patron of the Tory Reform Group.

Ambreen Waheed

Ambreen Waheed is Founding Executive Director RBI & Chair SAFoRB. Globally recognized for pioneering work in CSR & Responsible Entrepreneurship. Represent on governance bodies of GRI, APRSCP, UNGC, CSR expert committees UNCTAD-ISAR ,AccountabilitySES, of ICAP and SECP. Co-founded Asia Pacific CSR Centergrp, SAFoRB & GRLI. Taught at ESSEC France, Michigan and Wharton USA. Authored Pakistan's first CSR status review (2005) and "Responsible Business Guide.

Peter Waine

Peter Waine has worked for manufacturing companies and professional firms, both as a Director and a Non- Executive Director. A former CBI Director, he acquired Hanson Green with Barry Dinan in 1989. He is co-author of The Independent Board Director and Takeover, the business novel, and author of The Board Game. He is a former visiting Professor at both Warwick and Cass Business Schools. He is currently National Chairman for the Campaign to Protect Rural England (CPRE).

Peter L. Walker, FCIPR

Peter Walker is Executive Chairman of the PIELLE Consulting Group and Chairman of its operating businesses in Africa and South Asia. He was a founder director of the Centre for Corporate Responsibility in the UK and as Secretary to the Public Policy Committee of the Board of BOC Group initiated a range of country impact non-financial reporting systems. A member of the executive board of 'Wales in London' he is also chairman of the NBCC (Nigeria British Chamber of Commerce) UK Network.

Shannon Walker

Shannon Walker is the founder and CEO of Whistleblower Security Inc., an ethics and risk management company with clients worldwide, that protects and shelters organizations through allowing employees to anonymously report cases of wrongdoing. Ms. Walker currently sits on the District of West Vancouver Council and is a member of the Dr. Peter Aids Foundation and Dr. Peter Housing Society Boards.

Andrew Wilson

An economist, Andrew has a 20-year track record in consulting on issues of sustainable development. He is a Director at Corporate Citizenship, a specialist global corporate responsibility consultancy. His work involves advising senior managers in a range of multinational companies helping them to develop a strategic approach to corporate citizenship. Andrew has addressed a number of prestigious international conferences organized by the United Nations, the International Association for Business and Society, and the Business Institute for Sustainable Development in

Global Convention 2011
12 – 14 October 2011, London, United Kingdom

Korea etc.

Dr Graham Wilson

Dr Graham Wilson has worked for 17 years with organizational leaders, and their people, helping them create a vision of what their world could be like and to achieve it. He believes in the enormous potential of people and loves to see them discover and tap into this throughout their life. A futurist and strategist, his work originated in organization development, was shaped by a PhD in behavioral science, and training as a psychotherapist, sports coach, and minister. Chaplain to QinetiQ; leadership mentor to the Stockholm Environment Institute, Oxford; author of eight books and many essays.

Dr Joseph Lee

Dr Joseph Lee is Lecturer in Business Law in Nottingham University Business School. His research interests areas are European Company law; Regulation of financial services and financial markets; Derivatives and hedge funds regulation; Insider dealing, market abuse and money laundering control; Corporate mergers and acquisitions; Cross-border takeovers; Shareholder and stakeholder protection; Auditors' liability; Comparative corporate law and governance; Competition law in relation to financial services; International financial dispute settlement. He did his LLB in 1999 from Buckingham and PhD from London in 2004.